

Keystone Election Commission Bio's

Kevin Linehan, Chair

Keystone West Ranch

Full time resident Keystone West Ranch since 2018. Retired after 45+ years in the hair fashion industry manufacturing, distribution, retail, cosmetology schools and salon services throughout Colorado and 10 other states. Five years as Chairman of City of Fairfax, VA Electoral Board. General Registrar and Elections Administrator for the City of Fairfax six years. Certified Elections and Registration Administrator (CERA) and instructor for the Election Center of the National Association of Election Officials. Currently managing partner of two commercial warehouses. Participated as a volunteer director of several boards including an aircraft Co-Op, a Federal Credit Union, a Breast Cancer support non-profit, U.S. Chamber of Commerce tax policy committee and education policy committee and two HOAs including Keystone West Ranch.

Dan Sullivan, Vice-Chair

Alders Estates

Dan recently retired after 35 years in the Information Technology Industry at companies such as Accenture, IBM and Ernst & Young. Dan and his wife Carol moved to Keystone from Cedar Rapids Iowa in 2020. They have three grown children and two grandchildren, all of whom love to visit in both the winter and summer. He enjoys reading, golf and skiing. You may see him walking about the village with his white Samoyed dog, Luna.

Gretchen Davis, Recording Secretary

The Pines

Gretchen and her husband Gene have owned property in Keystone for over 40 years. They have been permanent Keystone residents for almost 10 years. Upon moving to Keystone Gretchen became very active in the Keystone Community. She served on the Keystone Science School Board, the Keystone Owners Association Board (three years as President), The Keystone Citizens League Board, and the Keystone Incorporation Committee Board. She is the President at The Pines HOA. She has been an advocate for Keystone supporting Keystone community issues with the Board of County Commissioners for eight years. She co-chaired the successful Petition Drive for incorporation.

Professionally she taught secondary mathematics and physics. Following her career in education she served on many nonprofit boards in St. Louis. In 2005, she was selected as the outstanding volunteer for the state of Missouri.

Steven A Martin

Elk Crossing

Steve and his wife Vickie have owned property in Keystone/Summit County for 20 years. They moved full time to Keystone in 2021. Steve has served on multiple HOA boards in varying capacities from Board Member to HOA President. Steve currently serves on the Keystone Owners Association Board and is the Chair of the Development Committee. Steve is employed full time for a roofing supply company as a Taper Design Specialist. He has a master's degree in Construction Management from Colorado State University and enjoys skiing, taking family walks with their two dogs and enjoying the outdoors.

Julia Metzger

Settlers Creek Estates

Julia and her husband Sam have owned property in Keystone for 16 years. They moved full time to Keystone in 2016. Julia is a retired lawyer (inactive-retired in both California and Ohio) after practicing for 32 years and then teaching law at Penn State for 6 years. Her specialty was finance and financial institutions. During her years of practice she has represented numerous nonprofit organizations, including the Presbytery of the Pacific, assisted in forming several non-profit organizations, and served on the boards of directors for several nonprofits. She is currently Treasurer of the Summit County Historical Society

Paula Samuelson

West Hills

Paula has been a resident of Summit County since 1996. She and her husband have owned a home in Keystone since 2018. Professionally, she has over 20 years' experience in administrative systems, community engagement support, master planning and environmental permitting processes and documentation. Paula is currently employed with Summit County's largest residential builder as a client relations coordinator. She has been actively involved in multiple HOA boards and committees, and routinely volunteers her time with local organizations and events.

William Schorling

Soda Ridge Road

Bill and his wife, Lynne have owned property in Keystone for 20 years and lived full time in Keystone for the last 5 years. He is currently a part-time ski instructor in Keystone. Bill practiced law for 42 years in a large firm primarily in Pennsylvania. His practice areas were finance and insolvency. He incorporated a condominium association as a borough (town), was the borough lawyer for about 15 years and helped draft the home rule charter, ordinances and municipal services contracts. Like Keystone, the borough contracted for municipal services from neighboring municipalities. He was a member of the Committee of 70, the Philadelphia good government organization and served in a number of capacities including as chair. The Committee of 70 oversees elections and studies and makes recommendations concerning governmental services and functions for the City of Philadelphia.

Mark C Willcoxon

Elk Crossing

Mark He moved full-time to Keystone in 2019 and is currently a Realtor with Keller Williams. His family has had a residence in Keystone for the past 25 years. He has been active in the community as a volunteer with Friends of Dillon Ranger Station and Summit Search & Rescue. After graduating from Westminster College with degrees in Political Science, Sociology and Anthropology, and a master's degree in Russian & East European Studies with a focus on 19th century cultural history and literature from the University of Kansas. He worked at the Field Museum of Natural Science in Chicago and lived abroad in Russia and Eastern Europe. Upon returning to Lawrence, Kansas, he established a retail and wholesale liquor store, directed a non-profit music academy and volunteered with Meals on Wheels for 16 years.

Melanie A Pustay-Woytash

Alders Estates

Melanie retired from the United States Department of Justice in 2019 where she was an attorney, member of the Senior Executive Service (SES), and Director of the Office of Information Policy. While at the Department of Justice she was responsible for overseeing federal agency compliance with the Freedom of Information Act, providing government-wide legal and policy advice to over 100 federal agencies. Melanie assisted other countries with the drafting and implementation of their own Access to Information laws, including China, Mexico, Argentina, Chile, and Sri Lanka. She litigated FOIA cases at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. Melanie and her husband Joe have been longtime visitors to Summit County and moved full time to Keystone in 2019. They both serve as volunteer Rangers with the Friends of the Dillon Ranger District.