

Section 2.6. Qualifications. (ALTERNATIVE)

(a) ~~(a)~~ — To be eligible to hold Town Elective Office, either by election or by appointment, a person, at the time of nomination and election or appointment, shall be either:

(1) a primary resident and registered elector as defined by the laws of the State of Colorado, and registered elector of the Town. To be eligible to hold Town Elective Office, a person shall have primary residency, as residency is defined in C.R.S. § 31-10-201(3), within the Town at the time of election or appointment for ~~one (1) year~~ twelve consecutive months immediately preceding the date of such election or appointment; OR

(2) a nonresident real property owner who holds the title to real property in a natural name, not in the name of an entity such as a trust, corporation, or limited liability company. To be eligible to hold elective office, the natural person must have been an owner of record for at least twelve (12) consecutive months immediately preceding the date of such election or appointment; and have, during that the twelve consecutive months, owned a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of the fee title interest in the subject real property.

(b) No person who has been convicted of a felony of embezzlement, bribery, perjury, solicitation of bribery, subornation of perjury, or other felony involving a breach of public trust, shall serve as a Councilmember or Mayor.

(c) Each person holding Town Elective Office, either by election or by appointment, shall maintain either primary residency in the Town throughout such person's term of office or real property ownership as required by Section 2.6(a)(2). If any person holding Town Elective Office shall move from the Town or transfer the real property during such person's term of office, such person's seat shall be vacant and such vacancy shall be filled by the Town Council as provided by this Charter.

(d) No person holding Town Elective Office, either by election or by appointment, shall be an employee of the Town during such person's term of office or perform personal services for the Town for which such elected official is compensated other than as provided in this Charter.

(e) No person holding Town Elective Office, either by election or by appointment, shall hold any other elective position with a federal, state, county, or municipal governmental entity, excluding an office on a new charter commission to be formed in accordance with Part 2 of Article 2 of Title 31, C.R.S., as may be amended from time to time, during such person's term of office.
